JUNIOR GOLF CLUB

The Claire Batista Junior Golf Club is designed for the more serious junior golfer who plays or would like to play competitive golf. The Junior Golf Club is for golfers age 12-18 who are interested in improving their golf skills and taking their golf game to the next level. Junior golfers who join the Junior Golf Club should have experience on the golf course and have an average score of 100 or better for 18 holes.

The Junior Golf Club will meet three times a month in June, July and August. During the sessions, the junior golfer will play several holes with golf professionals Claire Batista and Van Brandt, and will work on course management. After play, the junior golfer will receive instruction covering all aspects of the game. Video analysis will be used during instruction. The Interactive Frontier V1 Video System's unique visualization technology offers split screen graphics and model comparisons to accelerate the learning process.

Other areas that will be covered during the sessions are:

- Preparing for tournaments
- Rules of golf
- Golf Etiquette
- How to practice
- Preparing a golf resume for college

Other benefits of membership in The Junior Golf Club:

- Free range balls
- Use of practice facilities during the week
- Discounted play dates
- Merchandise discounts in pro shop
